Welcome

The Organising Committee would like to welcome you to the 11th International Conference on Nanotoxicology (NanoTox 2024).

The Conference will take place in the historic centre of Venice at Centro Culturale Don Orione Artigianelli on 23-25 September 2024. NanoTox is a forum aimed at personnel from research and academic institutions as well as from industry, governmental agencies, and other relevant organisations interested in:

- (Eco)Toxicity of advanced (nano)materials
- Hazard and exposure assessment, risk management and governance of advanced (nano)materials
- Grouping and read-across
- New approach methodologies (NAMs) for risk assessment
- Sustainability assessment, Safe(r)-by-Design (SbD) and Safe-and-Sustainable-by-Design (SSbD) of advanced (nano)materials
- Toxicity Pathways: nano cell circuits underlying Adverse Outcome Pathways (AOP) and Mode-of-Action (MoA)
- Big data management and modelling solutions

The NanoTox 2024 Conference is jointly organised by three EU-funded H2020 Projects DIAGONAL, HARMLESS, and SUNSHINE, focusing on the challenges related to safe and sustainable multicomponent nanomaterials by developing novel tools for evaluating human and environmental hazards, strategies for nanomaterial characterisation, classification, grouping and read-across for risk analysis and sustainability assessment.

We plan to welcome up to 300 delegates to the conference, bringing together international experts from Europe, the United States and Asia.

The Organising Committee is inviting corporations and individuals to co-sponsor the event and we feel the key benefits are:

-  Guaranteed large brand exposure to the targeted community in Europe, United States and Asia, including leading universities and governmental bodies such as the European Commission.
-  Public awareness that your organisation invests in research activities.
-  Generate awareness for your organisation to be linked to sustainability, risk governance and safe(r) by design of advanced materials.

We look forward to working with you!
